Instrumental Music Recital

A Stage In Utah For Instrumentalists To Meet, Perform And Showcase Their Learning And Skills

Mission

Provide a stage and forum to encourage and promote growing and budding Instrumentalists in Utah to display their learning, skill and share their knowledge of the instrument and the music with others.

Provide entertainment for music lovers and music enthusiasts.

Organized jointly by India Cultural Center and Trinity Music School of Utah.

Who Can Attend The Program?

Open For Public - Admission Is Free

Priority seating for sponsors, music students, music teachers, ICC/SGHT Trustees.

Bring friends, family, neighbors, classmates and spread the word to all music lovers.

Who Can Participate?

Anyone who wish to participate / perform can register online by paying the registration fee and providing details. Those who are trained to a minimum recital level, or those learning to play any musical instrument at least for a year and can perform musical pieces individually and/or as part of a group can register to perform. Participants can either sign up for individual or group recital, or both.

How To Prepare For This Program?

Participants should practice and prepare for one or more musical pieces to be performed on the stage based on the time allotted for each performance.

All individual and group participants should send a one minute video recording of the musical piece they are going to perform by Feb 23, 2025, 11:59 PM MST. This one-minute video recording is mandatory for all the participants to be allowed to perform in this event.

The event committee will review the one-minute video recordings and then group the participants based on the performance type and skill level. The video recordings are required to assign the time slots for the main event on March 22, 2025. Participants who fail to submit their one-minute video recording by the deadline specified above will not be permitted to take part in this event due to strict guidelines.
